Celebrate 31st Anniversary.

Norway Grange will celebrate its 31st Anniversary with an all-day meeting, on Oct. 28. A baked bean and pastry dinner will be served. All members are urged to attend. Rev. J. H. Little of South Paris will be among the speakers.

At the first meeting in November the first and second degrees will be conferred.

The members are talking of having a chicken dinner and a food sale in the near future.

Boston Excursionists.

Thirty-one tickets were sold for the Boston excursion, twenty-six on the all rail route, five by boat. Among those going were:

W. M. Wires and wife.
F. H. Beck and wife.
Miss E. J. Smith.
Mrs. H. L. Libby.
Mrs. Laura Haskell.
Mrs. Frank Kimball.
Mrs. W. A. Lewis and daughter.

Mary M. Bickford was home from Portland over Sunday.

Elden Stevens is to move into the Bumpus house, Steep Falls.

Eugene Lebroke and family are spending a week at North Waterford.

Dr. F. W. Morse of Canton visited Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Horton recently.

Lizzie M. Johnson is visiting her uncle, Capt. Austin Miller of Damariscotta.

Della M. Noyes is spending a couple weeks with her mother, Mrs. A. O. Noyes, at Fryeburg Center.

Edwin R. Berry has bought the Swift house on the corner of Paris and Winter streets. The house is to be completed immediately and a stable built.

"Little Dec," the Norway deputy sheriff, was paddled up the Dead Cambridge river in Upton the other night to serve legal papers on a fugitive from justice. Decoster says he saw from 20 to 30 deer but we guess he didn't find his man as he said nothing about it. The deer were plenty.

Supreme Judical Court.

October Term, 1905.

Thursday morning, Robert C. Foster, son of Judge Enoch Foster, was admitted to the bar. He is a graduate of Harvard School of Law and, passed an excellent examination before the State board of bar examiners. It is understood he will enter the office of Foster & Hersey at Portland.

The suit of Trask against Thurstons was on trial as we went to press last week. The jury were out about an hour and returned a verdict for the plaintiffs for $344 59. A motion for a new trial has been filed and the case goes to the law court.

While the jury was deliberating this case, the second jury heard the case of Wm. H. Porter against Austin Towle, appealed from the Rumford Falls municipal court. Defendant is a cobbler and shoemaker. He made a pair of shoes for the plaintiff, which were unsatisfactory and were taken back to the defendant and altered. The second time failed to satisfy and the plaintiff took them back and sued for the purchase price of the shoes $4 50. After hearing the evidence the judge directed a verdict for the defendant on the ground that when the shoes were taken back it was too late to rescind the contract and the evidence did not prove that it was the intention to rescind the contract.

J. B. Stevenson for plaintiff, R. L. Parker for defendant.

Friday morning the action of Lovell F. Oldham against James W. Carver for assault, was tried before the second jury. The plaintiff was an inhabitant of Peru, the defendant of Auburn, and they are related by marriage. The plaintiff claimed that the defendant was intoxicated and assaulted the plaintiff in his own home, by catching him by the throat and throwing him to the floor. The defendant denied this and asserted that while he had been drinking the plaintiff also was intoxicated which the latter denied.

Bisbee and Parker for plaintiff. Forest E. Ludden of Auburn for defendant.

The jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff for $31. A motion for new trial was filed, and the case goes to the law court.

Friday afternoon, the suit of Ralph H. Morrill against Enos D. Heald and Timothy H. Lunt was tried before the first jury. The parties are all business men of Buckfield. The plaintiff is in trade there and runs a grain mill. The defendants are also in the milling business. The controversy was on a load of corn. One Ernest L. Damon, a truckman, hauled grain for both parties. Out of a car load of grain he hauled to the defendant and to the plaintiff, the weights being kept by Mr. Lunt for both sides. The truckman claimed that one load he had hauled had not been put on his book and so notified the defendant. This the defendant denied.

The action was brought first before the Rumford Falls Municipal Court, where the verdict was for the defendant. It was then appealed to this court.

Fred R. Dyer for plaintiff, John P. Swasey for defendant.

The jury rendered a sealed verdict which was read at the opening of Court, Saturday, and was for the plaintiff.

The verdict of the jury was $27.63.

The defendants filed exceptions and the case goes to the law court.

The matters assigned for trial Saturday and Monday were all settled or disposed of and the days were quiet. Saturday the jurors were excused to Monday.

Indictments

The grand jury reported at half past three. Monday having a list of 27 indictments, mainly against men not in custody. Those made public are:

Amos A. Buck, assault with intent to kill.
Adam Miller, alias A. N. Miller, cheating under false pretenses.
Sullivan F. Bickford, selling mortgaged property.
James Decoster, alias James Russell, breaking and entering and larceny.

The four prisoners were brought into court and pleaded not guilty to the indictments. John P. Swasey appeared as counsel for Bickford, Wright & Wheeler appeared for Buck, Miller and Decoster.

Other indictments are:

Criminal Business

Frank E. Potter was also brought into court. He had been in jail about nine weeks for using threatening language. It appears that on Oct. 30, 1904, Potter threatened to shoot Alvin L. Ludden. About ten months later, on Aug. 13, 1905, he was arrested and taken before trial justice Ronello A. Barrows of Canton who ordered him to give $300 to keep the peace or go to jail for 6 months. He went to jail. Fred R. Dyer of Buckfield presented the matter to the court and the county attorney consenting to a nol pros, Potter was discharged.

The first case was that of Amos A. Buck indicted on a charge of assault with an ax on his wife Mary Ella Buck, with intent to kill her.

A jury was impaneled as follows:

Chas. E. Trueworthy.
H. A. Bacon.
John F. Watson.
Frank E. Poor.
Walter H. Swett.
Fred Waterman.
Frank L. Haskell.
Zenas W. Bartlett.
John A. Porter.
Ulysses G. McIntire.
L. L. Powers.
Fred Rowe.

His honor appointed Fred Rowe as foreman of the jury and at half past four county attorney C. P. Barnes began the case.

The assault was committed on May 25, at the home of Buck's mother, Mrs. John A. Buck, on what is called Tremont street, Paris Hill. Buck and his wife, who is his own niece, had been living for some time at the home of Orange Small near there. Their family life had been marked with considerable trouble.

Burglar Caught.

Charles Downs was arrested, Wednesday, at Dickvale, by State Detective F. L. Odlin of Lewiston. When arrested he confessed and implicated his brother, Henry Downs, who for some time was in Norway. Downs was taken to the County jail at South Paris, pending a hearing for the Shurtleff and other breaks.

Company D Ready for Business.

Capt. J. W. Nash has received from the Adjutant General a copy of the report of the late inspection of Company D which shows the company in an excellent light.

General character of the men appears excellent, and it is believed could be relied upon in any domestic or foreign emergency. The men appear zealous and interested. This company leads the State in marksmanship, having 11 expert marksmen, 2 sharpshooters, 22 marksmen, 2 second class, 10 third class and 1 fourth class. Average of one drill per week held, with an average attendance of about 30. Drill hall too small for extended order drill, or any satisfactory marching. Drill at manual good. Storerooms and individual lockers in excellent order; would have done credit to any organization. Property in hands of men properly accounted for. Captain reports that he could probably get at least 30 of his men ready for emergency duty in three hours; all who live in town within an hour. One member of this company has been in the habit of walking in 9 miles to attend the weekly drills.

The inspection by a U. S. Army officer will be shortly after Jan. 1.

Mrs. Q. M. Pratt is quite sick.

B. F. Bradbury is having his house reshingled.

The board is up for the gallery seats of the K. G. E. ball and the tickets are for sale by members of the order. Indications point to a good party, and a very successful ball.

There is some talk of a musical recital conducted by F. E. Tower. Those musically inclined are importuning Mr. Tower to give another recital similar to the one given last winter.

A. Henderson of the R. T. Booth Co. of Ithaca, N. Y., made us a pleasant call Tuesday. He says the hyomei preparations in this vicinity are selling well as they are sold on a positive guarantee.

Fred Allen has returned from a week's hunt at his camp at West Stoneham. Many deer were seen—26 in number. Two good ones were shot by the Clemons boys of Hiram. Charles, Alva and Jesse Clemons were there.

Ed Jordan, head sawyer at the C. B. Cummings & Sons' steam mill, suffered the breaking of his left ankle, Wednesday of last week, by a log rolling upon it. He is about on crutches and expects to be laid off a few weeks.

The fall fox hunt at Camp Cinnamon is on. The camp was opened last Saturday. The party consists of Capt. W. Bisbee, H. B. Foster, C. M. Smith, M. M. Fuller, Lewis Brooks, Oscar Bennett, Will Libby, L. H. Cushman and others. One fox at least has been captured and probably several coons.

The Smiley Shoe Store have installed an arrangement whereby the window lights may be run to any desired hour of the night and then shut off automatically. It is a common alarm clock connected with a lever. It is well known that these nickle clocks when the alarm goes off the winding key revolves. In this apparatus the winding key hits the lever and shuts the lights off instantly. The Norway & Paris Street Railroad have installed several of these clocks.

The Holt School Improvement League met at the school-house, Oct. 13, and the following officers were elected:

Pres.—Miss Adams.

Mrs. Wm. W. Twombly has recently obtained a boot which is very satisfactory. Mrs. Twombly suffers from having one limb shorter than the other and was obliged to go about on crutches. This new shoe made by J. J. McNeil of Portland acts on the principle of a lift, having an extension to the heel, but is much less awkward and clumsy than the common kind. Naturally while getting used to the lift, she has been obliged to use a cane but she expects soon to get about and travel if necessary without such support.

Last Saturday evening at her home, Sadie Elizabeth Millett gave a farewell party to a few of her friends. At eight o'clock the guests from the neighborhood and village began to arrive. After enjoying the games, at ten o'clock they were called to the dining-room, which was prettily decorated with autumn spoils, and refreshments were served from chafing dishes. Afterwards all took part heartily in a beechnut hunt, even the elderly portion of the party, who afforded great amusement. The prizes were awarded to Alice Whitcomb and Harold Holt. At a late hour the guests departed wishing their hostess a very pleasant winter.

David W. Frost died at his home on Pike's Hill, Thursday, Oct. 12th. He was over 80 years of age and was born in this town. He leaves a widow and five children, Mrs. A. G. Lovejoy, Frank E. Frost of Otisfield, Charles F. Frost of Boston, George D. and Asa of this town. The latter lives on the home farm and has cared for his father in his declining years. Mr. Frost was a good citizen and a life long Democrat. Interment was made in the Pike's Hill burying ground.

A car which was hauling corn from the West to Portland sprung a leak here and was set off on a side track for repairs. The wheat with which it was loaded attracted about 50 English sparrows and a more peaceable flock is seldom seen.

There was something doing at the sheriff's office, Sunday. Deputy Sheriffs Phillips and Decoster found near the railroad a man giving his name as Morey, who was evidently a hobo, and who also proved to be considerably "out." They toled him up to the office, and while they were giving him an examination there he was taken violently insane, and started to go through the back window. He succeeded in smashing the big pane of glass which formed the lower half of the window, but didn't get through. His insanity was no fake, for he didn't calm down until a doctor was called and injected morphine. He has since been under treatment in the jail. On his person he had no money, but an ordinary tramp's outfit of toilet articles, and a gold watch.

A Guyed Guide.

Or Owed to Dirigo.

State of the pine tree and the spruce,
To thee each fall there come
Hordes who would chase thy festive moose,
Or masticate thy gum.
With joy they hail, "Ye crags and peaks,
I'm with you once again,
To live for several happy weeks
The rare delights of Maine."

They catch their guide and go to camp,
And then begin a season,
That might be called "a flow of soul,"
But not "a feast of reason."
But, soul and spirits being one,
And that one in a bottle,
The first term might be used in fun
By one inclined to "chortle."

Oh State of Maine! my natal state,
They bring thee heaps of sheckels
These sporting ones with empty pates
Acquiring wounds and freckles.
They think it fun to fire a gun,
And sniff the smoke of battle,
While farmers weep like anything
O'er "decimated" cattle.

While sheep on many a hillside bare
Are shot without a warning;
No time allowed them to prepare
Their souls for change, not e'en a prayer
Nor time to say good morning.
And children on their way to school,
Each little son and daughter,
The gifted Solon, or the fool,
Are food for sportive slaughter.

A bomb proof auto-vehicle,
With armor plated center,
A flying motor miracle
By some brand new inventor,
Would fill a crying long felt want,
And bring its maker riches
While sportsmen bold our highways haunt,
And we take to the ditches.

State that I love and idolize,
I'm hoping they have lied
Who tell me that you advertise,
And register as guide.
They say the motto that you bear
Is Latin, I don't know,
A high toned, foreign name for guide,
Our well-loved Dirigo.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured.
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflamation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.
Sold by all Druggists, 75c.

Hyomei
Cures Catarrh
Breathe it—

No dangerous drugs or alcoholic concoctions are taken into the stomach when Hyomei is used. Breathed through the inhaler, the balsamic healing of Hyomei penetrates to the most remote cells of the nose and throat, and thus kills the catarrhal germs, heals the irritated mucous membrane, and gives complete and permanent cure.

Hyomei is the simplest, most pleasant and the only guaranteed cure for catarrh that has been discovered. Complete outfit, $1.00; extra bottle, 50 cents.

REACH THE SPOT.

To cure an aching back,
The pains of rheumatism,
The tired-out feelings,
You must reach the spot—get at the cause.
In most cases 'tis the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for the kidneys.

Charles Bierbach, stone contractor, living at 2625 Chestnut St., Erie, Pa., says: "For two years I had kidney trouble, and there was such a severe pain through my loins and limbs that I could not stoop or straighten up without great pain, had difficulty in getting about and was unable to rest at night, arising in the morning tired and worn out. The kidney secretions were irregular and deposited a heavy sediment. Doctors treated me for rheumatism, but failed to help me. I lost all confidence in medicine, but Doan's Kidney Pills relieved me so quickly and so thoroughly that I gladly made a statement to that effect for publication. This was in 1898, and during the six years which have elapsed I have never known Doan's Kidney Pills to fail."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mr. Bierbach will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. For sale by all druggists; price, 50 cents per box.

MILTON PLANTATION.

William C. Brooks.

William C. Brooks died at his home in Milton, Oct. 7. Some weeks previous to his death he underwent a serious operation and little hopes were entertained of his recovery.

Mr. Brooks has been foreman in Mann's mill at Milton for some years, and was well liked by all who knew him.

He leaves a wife and three children, Mabel, Willie and Don, a father and four brothers. His remains were interred in Lovell cemetery, near his old home.

Among the floral tributes were cut flowers from the children, cut flowers Mr. and Mrs. Irving Thompson, crescent from Lewis Mann and son, pillow from the mill hands with the words, "Our Foreman," on it, basket of flowers from Evergreen Assembly, Fythian Sisterhood, of which Mrs. Brooks is a member and many more whose names we were unable to learn. His death leaves a vacancy in the town which will be hard to fill.

Jack Dwinells is working for R. E. Farnum.

Most of the scholars are having the chicken-pox, and also the teacher.

Grangie Chase, wife and daughter visited at E. A. Farnum's over Sunday.

Mrs. Freeman and Charles Stevens have gone to Boston on the excursion.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Cole of Portland were the guests of Mrs. Clarence Jackson, last week.

Quite a number of the men in this place helped David Harding dig potatoes one day last week. He is laid up with a broken arm, caused by a horse kicking him.

NORTH WATERFORD.

Groaned with "Boiled Dinner".

A Harvest supper was given in the vestry, Oct. 17, at which about sixty sat down. The tables groaned with the weight of "boiled dinner," Indian pudding and pies of many kinds. Much merriment went the rounds and all voted the meeting one of the best.

Ed Farmer and wife, have returned to their home in Bingham.

Mrs. Carter Grover, of Albany, visited at Sumner Grover's, Tuesday.

Mrs. Hattie Allen's mother, visited at A. D. Holt's one day last week.

Amos Barker, of Oxford, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Sumner Grover.

W. H. Kilgore has been at South Paris the past week, acting in his office of Deputy Sheriff.

W. S. Perkins is building a large double piazza all around his store which will be a great improvement when finished.

Joseph Binford and wife, of Chatham, stopped at J. F. Rice's one day last week, they also called on their old time friend Mrs. Allen Millett.

P. W. Saunders and wife, visited Mrs. Saunder's father in Bethel. They went to meet Mrs. Saunder's brother, William Mason, of Worcester, Mass..

Supreme Judidial Court.

Tuesday, Mrs. Buck and her son left the house and went to her grandmother's above mentioned. Thursday, having imbibed hard cider he called as he had before done, and urged her to come home. During the discussion in which she was determined not to go back with him, he struck her with the pole of an axe inflicting injuries to her head. He was arrested, tried before the Norway Municipal court and unable to secure bonds has been in jail until this term of court.

The presentation of the case in behalf of the state took the remainder of Monday, and a part of Tuesday. The evidence did not show much of malicious intent as he had not made any threats. The defense was brief and the jury found the respondent guilty of assault and battery.

Buck was sentenced Wednesday to seven months in jail.

Several prisoners were brought in Tuesday, for sentence. Alden Farnham, proprietor of a hotel in the northern part of the County, on an appealed case for search and seizure pleaded guilty, and was fined $100 and costs, with a sentence of 60 days in jail, with an additional 60 days for non-payment. He pleaded guilty in an appealed case for single sale and was fined $50 and costs, with thirty days in jail and an additional 30 day for non-payment. He also pleaded guilty to an indictment found this term for nuisance and fined $100 and costs.

Richard Pye, of Oxford, pleaded nolo contendere to the indictment for common seller. He was sentenced to 60 days in jail, and $100 and costs, with 60 days additional for non-payment of fine.

The appealed case from the Rumford Falls Municipal Court of Philip Ash, for assault on an officer, was put on trial before a drawn jury, W. W. Whitmarsh, of Norway, being appointed foreman. The alleged assult took place March 15, and was upon W. H. Roach, a police officer of Rumford Falls. Ash was wanted as respondent in an assault case occuring the day before and had agreed to be present in court at nine that morning. For the State Roach and his helper claimed that at half past nine, Ash not having appeared they went after him, saw him on the street, followed him into a restaurant and that Ash refused to accompany the officer striking him and getting clubbed in return, when he concluded to go. On their way to the court room, it was claimed that Ash pushed Roach down upon his knees.

For the defense Ash claimed that it half past eight, instead of nine, and that he went into the restaurant to get witnesses in the other case on advice of his attorney and that he did not refuse to accomany the offier. He did not resist but accompanied him. That unprovoked Roach clubbed him twice, that on the street Roach was intoxicated and that caused his fall. His attorney, L. W. Blanchard, appeared and corrobrated his claim as to time.

John P. Swasey appeared for the respondent.

The jury found Ash guilty and he paid a fine of $50 and $22.29 costs.

The next trial was begun Wednesday forenoon and finished in the afternoon before a drawn jury, W. W. Whitmarsh foreman, was the appealed case of Joseph McMann of Rumford Falls from the municipal court. He was accused of a sale of intoxicating liquors. Deputy sheriff F. A. Perkins was the only witness for the state. He was concealed among bushes on a bright moonlight night and witnessed the delivery of intoxicants. Hearing a noise the respondent and others fled leaving portions of eight bottles, one partly filled with whiskey. The respondent undertook to prove an alibi but the jury brought a verdict of guilty. He received a sentence of 30 days in jail and a fine of $50 and costs with an addition 30 days for more payment.

Sullivan F. Bickford of Rumford retracted his plea of not guilty and pleaded nolo contendere to the charge of illegal sale of mortgaged property and was sentenced to 1 day in jail, having been there several months awaiting trial.

Prentiss Fogg indicted with Flagg for single sale and nuisance, pleaded guilty to the single sale and received a sentence of 30 days in jail, $50 and costs fine and an additional 30 days for non-payment The other respondent Fred Flagg, pleaded guilty to both.

James Decoster retracted plea of not guilty and pleaded nolo contendere to larceny, and the breaking and entering portion was nol prossed. He was sentenced to three months in jail.

The indictment for forgery against Adam Miller, the negro who has been in jail some five months and painted the County buildings during vacation was nol prossed and he was discharged on Wednesday.

In the appealed case of Fred Peltier of Rumford Falls for assault and battery the respondent pleaded nolo contendere and paid a fine of $50 and costs.

James Poland of Mechanic Falls pleaded not guilty to single sale of liquor.

Camille Fountaine of Rumford Falls is unable to understand or speak English. An intepretor was required. After the indictment was read bit by bit to him in answer to the "Guilty or not guilty," he raised a wave of amusement by answering, "Not so much as all that." His plea was guilty.

About half past three was begun the trial for manslaughter of Ralph L. Young of Rumford Falls, the 14 year old boy who on Sept. 14 shot Dwight F. Hillman, a ten year old playmate.

The jury was drawn as follows:

L. C. Mason, foreman.
Howard N. Merrill.
Josiah W. Smith.
J. Frank Howard.
H. A. Bacon.
Clinton E. Coolidge.
L. L. Powers.

The court appointed Mr. Mason foreman.

On Sept. 14, the present year Ralph Young called at the Hillman house and Lewis aged twelve and Dwight went him on a gunning trip. Both Mr. and Mrs. Hillman were away, the latter being on a visit of some weeks, the former being at Andover fair for the day. The boys found no game and returning to the house they sat on the piazza telling stories. After a time Young started to go home, the Hillman boys following him a short distance from the house. Young turned around, the Hillman boys standing close together. Young raised his gun, cocked it, threw it to his shoulder pointing at the Hillman boys. The gun was discharged and little Dwight fell. He was wounded in the abdomen and groin.

He was taken into the house, a physician summoned. His father got home almost immediately and everything was done for the little fellow that could be done. He lived about two days. Stevenson and John P. Swasey are counsel for the respondent. The case went to jury this Thursday afternoon.

Following the Young case will be the sentencing of offenders against the law and the presentation of a case against Lois M. Day, Albert L. Day and Clarence W. Day for setting fire to a building at Rumford.

The Knot Untied

Several divorces have been granted:

Elsa K. Cummings from Tom Cummings, cruel and abusive treatment.

David F. Thompson from Ida M. Thompson, cruel and abusive treatment.

Daisy Fortin from Perley C. Fortin, cruel and abusive treatment.

Harry P. Vashaw from Cora H. Vashaw, desertion.

Ethelyn Beryl Allen from Harville Leroy Allen, adultery. Name changed to Ethelyn Beryl Foster.

Everett E. Decker from Anice F. Decker, adultery. Custody of four minor children to libelant.

Wm. S. Fox from Harriet C. Fox, desertion.

Alfred Hobbs from Josephine Hobbs, adultery. Custody of minor child Ernest to libelant.

In one case divorce was denied.

Notes.

The duration of court will depend upon the length of certain criminal cases, the civil cases assigned for this week having been settled, referred or continued, and the new entries continued. Judge Powers having announced that he could not remain after Friday, renders it probable that court will close this week. If not, another justice, probably Judge Savage, will come to finish court.

Justice Powers is a man who impresses one with the idea of mastery. He has a piercing eye that seems to reach the very essentials of a matter and he is determined that the business of the court shall go on efficiently and in a proper manner. In his charges, clearness, directness and impartiality are the most noticeable, and no exception has been filed as to his admission or rejection of evidence as to his ruling on any matters of law.

In his sentence of criminals he is severe and gives the offender against especially the prohibitory law a season for reflection upon his offence, as well as the fine.

OXFORD.

A Merry Gathering.

There was a merry gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Flood on Thursday evening, Oct. 12, in honor of the birthday of their daughter Ethel. The affair was wholly a surprise to Miss Flood, who is assistant at the post-office, and while she was attending to her duties there her mother and the girls decorated the room with autumn leaves, giving it a beautiful appearance.

Ethel came from the office at 8 o'clock and was sent into the room for a package and as she entered the lights were turned on by someone within, and she found herself surrounded by 16 of her young friends. She was so much surprised that the color left her face and for a few minutes her friends were alarmed but she soon rallied and a delightful evening was passed.

They brought to her an elegant silver manicure set, and she had numerous other gifts. Refreshments were served during the evening, and in the center of the table was a large birthday cake with her name and age upon it. Whist and other games were played and the party separated at a late hour, wishing Ethel many happy returns of the day.

Wardwell--Stone.

There was a pretty home wedding at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Leander Wardwell, Monday, Oct. 16, the contracting parties being their daughter, Nina Gertrude, and Edward Leland Stone. The room was prettily decoraten with evergreens and flowers, and the bride was daintily gowned in white. Rev. Mr. Chapman of the Metnodist church officiated. Only the immediate relatives and friends were present. The happy pair have gone to Portland and Saco on their wedding trip, and will be at home to their many friends after Oct. 22nd.

A communication of Delta Lodge, F. & A. M., was held at Masonic hall, Thursday evening, Oct. 12th. The third degree was conferred upon one applicant. Five visitors from Waterford and two from Fryeburg were present. A lunch was enjoyed after the work.

Twenty members of Delta Lodge, F. & A. M., visited Mt. Tire'm Lodge at Waterford, Tuesday evening, Oct. 10th. Nelson T. Fox went with one of his fine four-horse coaches. The evening was fine and the ride was very much enjoyed. The third degree was conferred and a fine supper served to a large company of the craft. After a social hour they started homeward and this trip and the welcome they received in Mt. Tire'm Lodge will ever be remembered as one of the bright spots in the lives of those who were present from Delta Lodge.

Why Refer to Doctors

Because we make medicines for them. We give them the formula for Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and they prescribe it for coughs, colds, bronchitis, consumption. They trust it. Then you can afford to trust it. Sold for over 60 years.

"Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is a remedy that should be in every home. I have used a great deal of it for hard coughs and colds, and I know what a splendid medicine it is. I cannot recommend it too highly."—MARK E. COHEN, Hyde Park, Mass.

Norway Municipal Court.

Friday morning, Deputy sheriff W. L. Farrar had before the court Joseph Lawson of Lynn, Mass., on a charge of vagrancy. Lawson was arrested at Oxford having been bumming his way on a load of lumber from New Hampshire. He had a dress suit case of liquor and no money. He received a sentence of 30 days in jail and the liquor was confiscated.

Col. Saunders Bound Over.

Col. C. L. Saunders was bound over to the March term of the Supreme Judicial Court, on Saturday, in the Municipal court, the bond being $500.

It will be remembered that Col. Saunders came to town last June, and opened a summer resort park in the grove that some years ago was run a couple seasons as Electra Park. He represented that he had several amusement places and had plenty of money behind him so secured credit for the lumber which went into the stage, seats and dance floor, fences and enterance building, also work done in grading the grounds, the carpentry work, water piping, etc., also a board bill at the Andrews House for himself and wife, and for some talent.

The bills coming due he made a settlement with the electric road and went away, July 1. The amount of indebtedness is reported $350 to $400.

State Detective A. P. Bassett has been on the lookout for him since that time, and located him as the proprietor of a lodging house on Tremont street, in Boston.

NORWAY AND VICINITY.

Mrs. Mabel Hanley of Ridlonville was in town the past week. Mrs. Hanley will be remembered as Mabel Towne, who passed her girlhood in Norway.

William B. Walker is picking raspberries these days though it is a little off season. They are as large and taste the same as in the "Good old summer time."

Thomas Bradbury of Norway, and his two sons are creating quite a stir in the Machias valley, securing Christmas trees for the New York and Philadelphia markets. Mr. Bradbury has several crews at work and expects to ship 4,000 trees by the close of the season. The land owners are receiving $2 to $10 per thousand for the trees standing in the woods. There is considerable work connected with the gathering of these trees, which are mostly fir.

Lelia Edwards of Bridgton has accepted a position in the central telephone office.

Sadie Millett assisted by Mercy Millett and Gertrude Gardner, gave a chafingdish party to a few friends, Friday evening; at Miss Millett's home in Millettville

Mrs. C. H. Perry of Chest Springs, Pa., sends us a post card showing the great attraction in crossing the Alleghany mountains, Horse Shoe Curve of Altoona, Pa. It is about 1800 ft. above the sea level and is much deeper than the picture shows. The reservoir which supplies Altoona with water is in the center of the curve.

Mrs. J. W. Reeg of Turner and aunt, Mrs. Frank Bartlett, formerly of Monson but now of Machias, visited friends here last week. Mrs. Bartlett visited Mrs. Rebecca Knight at the Lake and Mrs. Reeg with Mrs. Frank Kimball. Some four years ago Mrs. Reeg lived here a few months, her husband having charge of the cutting room at the shoe factory. About two years ago Mr. Reeg bought a farm in Turner, near his wife's folks, C. B. Chandler's, and is now farming. They keep nine cows and are milking six now. They belong to the Turner Grange and are enjoying life immensely. Mr. Reeg has no desire to return to shoe making. Though he owns a residence in Lynn he prefers the farm.

Three Years; Ten Years.

The late president of the Croton River bank at Brewsters, N. Y., built the finest house in all that region, in 1884, and painted it with lead-and-oil at a cost of $400—the house cost $31,000.

In 1887—three years—he repainted it with Devoe at a cost of $350. In 1897 this paint was in good condition.

Lead-and-oil, $400, three years. Devoe $350, ten years.

Gardner Norton, who is working in South Portland for Fred A. Johnson, is at home on a two weeks' vacation and visited his brother, who is working in Lovell for Mrs. Charles.

Henry Douglass of Bridgton was held in 3,000 bonds at the Municipal court at Portland on the charge of assault and intent to kill upon Benjamin Kimball at Bridgton.

"Paint the Bridgton Academy buildings and send me the bill," was the recent proposition of Hon. Melville E. Ingalls of Cincinnati. And the grateful trustees took him at his word.

W. C. Johnston will sell at auction at his farm near East Andover, Wednesday, Nov. 1, commencing at 9 o'clock, an all day sale, hay, cows, farming implements carriages, stove wood, cook stove, etc., Harry Dyer, auctioneer. If stormy, next fair day.

Echos, Wails and Wayside Notes from the Fryeburg Fair.

By One Who Was There.

Excellent weather for the fair. That's what everybody said. It was true, too.

Fryeburg is some distance from Norway. In it was the Lovewell-Chamberlain-Paugus fight, of May 19, 1725. The historic occurance of which has been ably defended in this paper by the Lewises of that town and Boston. Lovewell's Pond is there, so is the battlefield, and a monument marks the place. The bronze shaft and tablet was erected by the Colonial Dames in June, 1904, at large expense.

Yes, the Saco river runs round Fryeburg, and sort of bounds it, and here rests a mint of money for bridges. Wooden bridges—with one ann two trusses and some without any, bridges covered in withlong shingles prevail. It's question with some, whether the water runs up or down—Some say "up" to the Fair Grounds, others say "down". We guess from the Oxford, the latter is correct.

The Fair Ground is a great place, anyhow. It's well kept and well fenced. It's painted and more or less decorated, and looks prosperous. The people who patronize the grounds as a rule look prosperous—some of the horses don't, however they average up well. There were undoubtedly 1000 horses on the grounds on the Big Day,—Wednesday,—and 14 automobiles, which made things lively, especially when the show broke up at night, and the multitude were going through the big gate—horses snorted and women held their breath, autos, men, women and children, oxen, sheep and swine and the belt line of horse cars kicked up a heap of dust. Real dust that obscured the sun and lit on the white gowns of the swelled dressed ladies and the tattered wearing apparel of Rip Van and dog. We supposed "Schnider" had died in the 20 years' sleep, but at Fryeburg Fair he was a lively, kicking, long-eared, slab-sided big footed hound pup of uncertain breeding.

Perley Hartford, of Lovell, and an other good looking man, took tickets and condescended to answer questions and sort the public. Young Eastman road a horse and did a rushing business and errands.

It was a busy time for every one. Even Eben Fox, Press Walker, Johnie Ames and Ed. Hutchins were in it, as well as several thousand more. The societies' officers were in evidence every where, including Seth Fife, Messrs Hill and Buzzell of the finance committee.

The only man not realy over worked, was Secretary, B. Walker McKeen. He had ample time to smoke a cigar, answer all sorts of questions regarding "classes and premiums," and never once seemed to be ruffled.

Mary E. Woodward and another lady, presided over the inside book arangements and the long distance telephone. That they were busy goes without saying, as you know only horses and women are alowed to work while the men and directors smoke and make knowing guesses as to how much the gate recipts are to be.

It leaked out at 4 o'clock p. m., Wednesday, that Treasurer Tarbox had taken $213 41 more cash—real money—than was ever received on any previous big day. Some threw up their hats, and the finance committee smiled as this assured a reduction of the debt which had been giving them some little concern.

About this time L. C. Bateman, of the Lewiston Journal, or some one who looked just like him, sailed in and gave an oration on horticulture and socialism, which electified his hearers, and caused the State Expert Butter Maker, Thompson, to smile, and the roosters to crow in a nearby coop.

This was at the Fryeburg Fair.

A. P. Bassett, State detective, coroner, game warden and all-round sport, with voting residence in Norway, is owner of Camp Sebattus, in Lovell. It's near a mountain of the same name. In the heart of a country filled with big game, judging from the game photograph recently coming from Lovell.

This camp is some thirty rods from good fishing in Kezar river, and it must be in an excellent hunting territory. It was originally a dwelling house, but was changed over into a sporting camp when it came into possion of its present owner. The fireplace jambs are built of picked field rocks. It is said that some miles of double wall were torn down to procure suitable rocks—some coming from a distance of five miles.—Mr. Poore, of Lovell, built the fireplace.

A flag was floating, and the stable door open as we passed, but no one was at home. The proprietor, we afterward learned was hunting in the bush for partridges. He spends considerable time here during the hunting season, and must enjoy the seclusion and pictorial scenery at any time in the year.

"True, Walker and Heald," is the sign on the store formerly occupied by B. Walker & Son, at Lovell village. The same firm have another store at the Center, we think.

Barnes Walker, for many years selectman, "off and on," and always in trade, died last June. His son is in the above firm.

The loss by fire of the American House and the dwelling next to it, leaves a much seen and felt vacancy in this pretty inland village. A hotel is sure to be appreciated after it's gone up in smoke and down in ashes. No exception here to the rule. Lovell citizens and others want a hotel.

Two bridges over the Saco between Lovell and Fryeburg, some ten miles distant. Anciently one at least was a toll bridge. A stage goes to Fryeburg, daily, at which place is the nearest railroad station.

T. S. McIntire doesn't live on his farm. The cedar tree beside the kitchen door has been cut. We think he owns the place yet, but lives with relatives at East Fryeburg. We met him on the Grounds, and he is the same as ever only a couple years older than when we last met. He held the office of town clerk, 22 consective years and has been justice of peace, about ever since Maine was set apart from Massachusetts.

Long live Uncle Tom, and may his declining years be happy ones!

Hon. Albion P. Gordon, who settles line cases and dabbles in politics and lives at Fryeburg Center, was seen emmerging from the crowded grand stand, Wednesday afternoon. He had his eye on us and we forthwith addressed him, ending our remarks by calling him a bad name, which perhaps was not appropriate, and he got back on us by refusing to pay for his ADVERTISER The next day we met him at the pulling of strong horses, and he handed us the price of the paper for a year. He didn't seem to realize that the paper was already paid to Oct. 1, 1906 He'd got so in the habit of paying for the ADVERTISER at Cattle Fair, that he could not help it. We gave him credit to Oct. 1, 1907, and hope he will profit by reading the paper every week for many years to come.

County Commissioner Dean A. Ballard seemed to be a little aloof from the multitude. He was seen driving a good looking two-seated wagon well filled with people and lunch baskets, and was taking in the sights and scenes and looking self satisfied and contented.

Lang Pendexter of Conway, who scoops the big premiums for his Jersey herd, was here. He had some stock that took the blue ribbons too. Mr. Pendexter has been struggling for the past four months with appendicitis. Four physicians have been consulted, two say submit to the knife and the other two counsel differently, and Lang is not happy, though he looks as well as usual.

"Shavey" Noyes, formerly of Norway but now a resident of Fryeburg, and Geo. R. Howe of Norway were passed in the highway at Fryeburg Center.

Aechtler and Tobin, lessees of The Oxford, were busy. Their lease expires Oct. 15th and we understand will not be renewed. Undoubtedly Frank Plummer will resume proprietorship of the house. They report a good summer's business.

E. E. Hastings, esq., and Col. E. C. Farrington had just seen a flock of ducks fly over the village. This made them uneasy, they lost interest in the fair and immediately betook themselves to their river home and are now waiting with guns in hand for the ducks to come in.

Geo. B. James, Boston and New York, of White Mountain Paper Co. fame, is sole owner of the only remaining horse railroad in New England. It's the "F. H. R." with two streaks of rust extending from station to Martha's Vineyard on the Saco, maybe two miles more or less. The rails were plowed out and cars run as far as the Fair Grounds.

Head on collisions and derailing of cars by spreading of the rails were reported but no passengers were injured. Traffic was heavy for the three days and it's surprising they handled it as well as they did with the equipment.

The road looks lonesome anyhow. Paint and varnish would add to the looks of the rolling stock.

Long may the "F. H. R." endure!

It is authoritatively reported that the stately Daniel Webster of New Hampshire played tag around the Academy and did copying in the Register of Deeds office here somewhere about 1801 or '02. We don't doubt it. Eckley Ballard, the present register, keeps the volume right at his elbow. It's much sought after by summer visitors and other curio-seekers. The writing is said to be as plain as copper-plate and bears little resemblance to the Saintly Daniel's awful scratches of latter and more matuier years.

Daniel taught school here. He worked here. It has made Fryeburg famous in both story and song, to say nothing about the recent Webster Memorial orations and printed pamphlets. He was here.

That with Lovewell's Fight, the ever shifting battle ground, is glory enough for one town!

We might say something about the stone watering trough in the village Whirlpool, Jockey Cap, the Osgoods, the Danas, the Gordons, Eastmans, Springs and Smiths. A list of notables as long and winding as the Saco river, but we desist.

Webster was here, Lovewell was here, and so has been the intrepid Arctic Explorer Pearey and in the winter of 1762-3 John Stevens was here.

What more?

It's enough!

Except possibly we were here Oct. 3 to 5, 1905, and attended the Cattle Fair and Show.

This year the show was not up to what the public had a right to expect. There was a lack of sufficient number of horses to make it interesting in some of the races. The hall was not as well filled as usual, neither was there as much stock as usual. For all this there is a cause. Shall we tell it. Not this time. It will be remedied before another year without our assistance.

The attendance was big, weather conditions were favorable, but next year the public will expect more of an entertainment. They will get it, too. No doubt of it.

Mr. Tarbox has the cucumber plants in his three hot houses well started, some 300 healthy looking vines about ready to bloom. The crop will be ready for harvest in less than a month.

We inspected them in company with two sheriffs and a constable. Mr. Tarbox was absent but the buildings being locked no damage was done.

Lillian Hobbs and brother, James, and another sister have bought the Goodnow farm. It was bought some months ago. It is one of the best farms in town and the house unquestionably stands among the first. Many thousand dollars have been expended on the place in the last ten years. Mr. Goodnow was the pioneer of this section in raising cucumbers for the winter market. The farm originally cost $15,000 and we understand the Hobbses bought it for about half that sum. They take a few boarders, as well as summer company.

"Well, Mr. Thoms, I guess I'll not redeem the team, I'll go to the station and buy a ticket and go home by train." This is what Tom Thibodeau of Norway is reported to have said to the stable keeper when he went to get his team and was charged 50 cents a feed for the two and three-fourths days' entertainment furnished the horse.

Col. Taylor objected to coming home by train and paid the bill.

They returned home by the way of North Waterford, taking in the first day of the World's Fair.

Sheriff Bertrand G. McIntire of Waterford attended the fair. He was accompanied by Deputy W. H. Kilgore of North Waterford and were escorted about the grounds by Deputy John F. Phillips of Fryeburg. They saw the sights and had a good time. Nothing in their line was doing.

We left our lazy horse in the care of Wm. Kelley, esq., as we had no rich man with us to redeem it.

We returned by the way of Bridgton, crossing Moose Pond fill and bridge. This was a big undertaking and was put in some 70 years ago. It must have cost a large sum of money.

The split stones through this section are marvels of perfection. Nowhere in New England is there better rifting stone. They were cut from boulders. They are in evidence throughout the town of Fryeburg and as far east as Moose Pond.

The Fryeburg burying ground, a few rods from the historic Academy, is fenced with split stone set endways, making a solid stone fence, which stands up in line almost as perfectly as when first built, three-fourths of a century ago. This fencing must have cost a small fortune as the yard contains probably two acres more or less.

We were so impressed with the novel security and pristine beauties of this last resting place of storm beaten and careworn humanity that some years ago we obtained an option on a corner lot. Failing to close in, our option lapsed Oct. 1st, 1895, and could not be renewed at a reasonable figure.

What a pleasure it would be to rest in that soil, where the frost fails to "heave" and the solid split stone posts stand plumb and true!

State Road, that is a road repaired in August, half of the expense being paid from the State treasury, for the safe and easier passage of automobiles.

We found several pieces of it in the circuitous route taken. A strip a hundred rods or less long in Norway. The dirt was carted from the Gammon gravel pit, a mile and a tourth, at an expense of about 75 cents per load. It is laid from Frost Corner, so called, and extends by the Capitol Buildings of Dr. C. A. Stephens. We give definite location so it can be easily found. For part of two years it has been under construction.

We saw symptoms of a similar road in Lovell but not being familiar with the history of the town and meeting no one of whom we could inquire, we are some in doubt as to its genuineness.

Fryeburg, well, they're all State Roads, if not they look it. Somebody tells us there are 20 wooden bridges in this town. If so, the State by right should help them.

A mile or so out from Bridgton Center you come to a piece of State Road. No question about it. Two or more autos can safely go abreast over this speedway. A hill has been leveled, rocks blown out and apparently a permanent road built. It is a good thing, though expensive.

Harrison has a touch of it. Near Sumner Davis' farm a good bit of work has been done. It's a decided improvement.

All this work on the highways is as it should be. More ought to be done. In nothing are we so wasteful as in road-mending. Don't waste money in mending but build roads with a foundation under them and repair only to keep them passable. Pursue this course and in ten years we shall have some good roads.

This is what State Road Commissioner Paul D. Sargent of East Machias advocates. Everybody knows it as common sense teaches it. Why not do it?

State Roads are all right. We believe in them. In any reasonable plan to make our roads better.

One thing, Mr. Road Commissioner, please do, it will take no money and add much to the beauty of our highways, viz:—"Save the shade trees by the roadside." Insist on this being done. Don't forget about it when you order the troublesome bushes to be cut. Small trees will grow to big ones if given a chance.

See that these shade trees have a chance.

Night was coming on as we arrived in Bridgton. The Bridgton House is closed and for sale we were told. Big house, good location for the right party.

We stopped long enough to shake hands with Judges A. H. and E. C. Walker and get a freshly printed copy of the News. Brother Shorey, senior, had retired to his home for the night and had left Harry with several smart looking girls to get out the paper, which was coming through the press 15 or more per minute.

We rested for the night at David Kneeland's in Harrison and listened to a fish story. The day before at Sebago Lake station there were thousands on thousands of salmon in the water about the boat landing. They were rooting in the sand like pigs in an orchard or were leaping from the water and gyrating in the air similar to acrobats at a circus. Five acres of them, sure, we were told. Salmon from 12 to 40 inches long, from 1 to 30 pounds each made things lively.

The engine took water there and the conductor allowed the passengers to go

THE CHANGE OF LIFE

INTELLIGENT WOMEN PREPARE

Dangers and Pain of This Critical Period Avoided by the Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

How many women realize that the most critical period in a woman's existence is the change of life, and that the anxiety felt by women as this time draws near is not without reason?

If her system is in a deranged condition, or she is predisposed to apoplexy or congestion of any organ, it is at this time likely to become active and, with a host of nervous irritations, make life a burden.

At this time, also, cancers and tumors are more liable to begin their destructive work. Such warning symptoms as a sense of suffocation, hot flashes, dizziness, headache, dread of impending evil, sounds in the ears, timidity, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and inquietude are promptly heeded by intelligent women who are approaching the period of life when woman's great change may be expected.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the world's greatest remedy for women at this trying period, and may be relied upon to overcome all distressing symptoms and carry them safely through to a healthy and happy old age.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound invigorates and strengthens the female organism, and builds up the weakened nervous system as no other medicine can.

Mrs. A. E. G. Hyland, of Chestertown, Md., in a letter to Mrs. Pinkham, says:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I had been suffering with falling of the womb for years and was passing through the change of life. My womb was badly swollen. I had a good deal of soreness, dizzy spells, headaches, and was very nervous. I wrote you for advice and commenced treatment with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as you directed, and I am happy to say that all those distressing symptoms left me, and I have passed safely through the change of life a well woman."

For special advice regarding this important period women are invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham for advice. It is free and always helpful.

WHY NOT HAVE THE BEST

FOR YOUR MONEY

Thirty-five years experience will teach any one something.

One may use a range that length of time, they know one well. I have sold, set and repaired Stoves and Ranges all my business life.

I know Ranges. Some are always good; some are most always good; all are intended to be just right, but all makers cannot hit it every time.

Some will draw too well, some will not draw hard enough. The happy medium is hard to find and keep.

I think I have it in the line I carry.

I will set a Range for you that WILL GIVE PERFECT SATISFACTION.

You take no chances whatever, why experiment?

Try one I can set for you and be happy.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

How To Find Out.

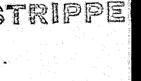

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

out and see the fish, telling them the engineer would blow the whistle as a signal for them to return, thus all who cared to saw this remarkable collection of salmon—State property, or State wards, or something of that sort, as State Fish and Game Warden Stanley kept his eye on them night and day.

It was a great sight! Surely it must have been. On account of low water it is thought the fish have sought new spawning grounds.

The melancholy days have come,
The saddest of the year,
When the hunters seek their shooting iron,
To chase the frightened deer.

Dr. and Mrs. Hiram Abbott were in town last week.

The reports of the rifles are heard in the land but no reports of big game as yet.

Blanch Russell, Georgia Abbott and Helen Roberts are spending a few days at Camp Bruin.

Mrs. Lena Richardson has closed The Ferns and left Tuesday for her home in Roxbury, Mass.

Mrs. Rose Rawson Heywood visited Helen M. Staples last week. She and Miss Staples were schoolmates in Hebron academy many years ago.

Mrs. E. H. Howe is visiting her sister, Mrs. Lunt in Falmouth. Her daughter Jessie is attending school at Westbrook Seminary and boards with Mrs. Lunt.

Frank Russell is harvesting his potatoes and will have six hundred bushels, quite like Aroostook Co. He also has twelve barrels of cabbage with much other farm produce.

George Cummings and wife and Master Charles, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bangs and Mrs. Stuart came from Norway, Saturday, and spent Sunday at Camp Bruin. The weather was fine and the hills were glorious.

Mrs. Clara Howe and Mrs. Maria Twitchell has returned from a visit to Denver, Col. They took advantage of the Grand Army excursion to visit friends and have had six weeks of real delight. Something bright for the dark days of winter in recalling the new scenes and experiences of their trip.

Birthday parties are quite the feature of the month. On Saturday evening, Oct. 7, Mrs. Annie Russell was surprised by a score of neighbors who spent a charming evening in games and social chat. Several pretty gifts were left as reminders of the occasion—and on Oct. 9, Mrs. Louisa Holt's house was invaded by the same number. The men think they are "not in it," but threaten to take matters into their own hands next year and the ladies will be among the stay-at-homes.

Helen M. Staples returned from a three weeks' visit with friends in New Gloucester, North Bridgton and Norway last week, Saturday, and on Oct. 5th, 24 of the ladies in the village came in to help her celebrate her birthday. They brought their own food and a most delightful afternoon was enjoyed. Several poems were sent by her friends in other States, the reading of which gave much pleasure. Instead of giving the jug of chloroform, they gave so much good cheer that she thinks she would like to live forever.

SOUTH ALBANY.

Joel Allard, wife and Lottie attended the fair at North Waterford, and visited Mrs. Allard's sister, Mrs. Marston, at Albany.

A Reliable Remedy for Croup.

With the dry, cold weather of the early winter months, parents of croupy children should be on the alert for ominous symptoms. There is no cause for anxiety when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is kept in the home. If this medecine is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even after the croupy cough has appeared, the attack may be warded off. Mrs. S. Rosinthal, of Turner, Michigan, says: "We have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for ourselves and children for several years and like it very much. I think it is the only remedy for croup and can highly recommend it." For sale by Noyes Drug Store, Norway, Shurtleff's, South and West Paris. 41-45

HARRISON.

Albert S. Caswell.

Albert Smith Caswell, head of the fish concern of Caswell, Livermore & Co., 428 Atlantic avenue, Boston, died Sunday morning. Death was expected as Mr. Caswell had been a terrible sufferer from neuralgia of the heart for nearly a year, which trouble ended in his death at the summer home of his son-in-law at Wilmington.

After having been confined to his home in Roxbury for several months he went to Wilmington, Silver lake, and for a few days seemed to improve, but after that his trouble became more aggravated and he was in much pain a greater part of the time.

No man in the fish industry was better or more popular than Mr. Caswell.

He was born in Harrison, June 12, 1839. With pride he used to tell how, after he had paid for his transportation from Maine to Boston, he had less than $1. He secured work on one of the wharves, going with the firm of K. & S. A. Freeman, fish dealers.

With this firm he remained between 10 and 12 years and learned the business thoroughly. Working at the same place was Mr. Livermore, who also was learning the business. Mr. Caswell in those days was very saving and thought of going into business when he had enough money accumulated. Then the firm of Caswell, Livermore & Co. was started and for 25 years the firm has carried on the business.

He was a steadfast worker for the Universalist church and gave considerable for charity.

He was twice married. His first wife was Lucinda Lowell of Harrison. She died six years ago. Two years afterward he married Clara Sawyer of Portland. Besides his wife he is survived by two children by his first wife, Clarence B. and Cora Caswell, and two brothers, Daniel H. Caswell, a well-known business man of Texas, and S. E. Caswell of Wakefield. He was one of the best-known Odd Fellows of Boston and had held some of the most exalted places in the order in the State.

The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon at 2.30 from his late home, and the interment was in Cedar Grove cemetery.

BUCKFIELD.

Mrs. Nellie E. Decoster.

Mrs. Nellie E. Decoster passed away on the morning of Oct. 16, seemingly sudden, though not entirely unexpected. She was the widow of the late Dr. John Decoster. She was a native of Rumford and about 54 years of age. She had been twice married. Her first husband was J. Spaulding Record of this town, a musician and artist. She married Dr. Decoster in 1887 and resided several years in Rumford Falls or until the death of her husband, after which she returned to Buckfield, where she has since resided. She leaves a son, Fred W. Record, by her first husband, and a son Thomas, aged about 14, by her last husband.
